Welcome Greetings: 7th International Conference MCDSARE

CHAIR MESSAGE by Representative of IFIASA, Romania.

Dear Colleagues,
Ladies and gentlemen,

It is a great honor and pleasure to announce the inauguration of the 7th International Conference by IFIASA. International Multidisciplinary Scientific Conference on the Dialogue between Sciences & Arts, Religion & Education 2022 provides a unique opportunity to academics and practitioners alike to interact and share knowledge on timely research.

Since 2015, International Multidisciplinary Scientific Conference on the Dialogue between Sciences & Arts, Religion & Education by Ideas Forum has become one of the most important conference on social sciences and arts in Romania and more that, in the international academic global level. MCDSARE enjoys a broad international visibility. The Proceedings Volume of our conferences is indexed in prestigious scientific data bases.

First of all, allow me to express my gratitude to our speakers without, this conference would not be possible.

This year's theme is Symbol and Reality.

Why symbol and reality? Are symbols same as the reality?

Because the symbol not does mean a contradiction, it is a sign of reality.

The symbolic power is considered the primary source of knowledge all existences, that determine the force of Science, Art, and Education.

Thank you very much for supporting our Journals & Conferences Proceedings by attending and contributing.

Your participation ensured the success of our international projects and your scientific work is an important part of our academic collection.

IFIASA conferences offers a unique opportunity for online interaction with researcher sand practitioners from around the world and it can therefore offer a venue to network and establish fruitful research collaborations. We will be using meet.google.com as our virtual engagement platform, which offers many exciting technical capabilities through which sponsors and exhibitors can engage with attendees, both inside and outside of the virtual exhibit space.

We look forward to having you with us at our Conference!

Thank you!

Prof. PhD. Marian BUGIULESCU,
President of IFIASA, Romania.
